D6/2025

To: All banks, controlling companies, branches of foreign institutions, eligible institutions and auditors of banks or controlling companies

Directive issued in terms of section 6(6) of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990)

Returns to be submitted to the Prudential Authority with effect from 1 July 2025

Executive summary

On 11 September 2024, the Prudential Authority (PA) issued Directive 4 of 2024 to all banks, controlling companies, branches of foreign institutions, eligible institutions and auditors of banks or controlling companies, informing all interested persons that, to facilitate and support the work related to the Umoja System Implementation Project, the PA had decided to propose, among other things, the deletion of all Banks Act returns (BA returns) and related instructions for the completion of the BA returns from the Regulations relating to Banks (Regulations).

Accordingly, on 31 January 2025, the Minister of Finance amended the Regulations by deleting from the Regulations all BA returns and related instructions for the completion of the BA returns, with effect from 1 February 2025.

Simultaneously, on 31 January 2025, the PA issued Directive 1 of 2025, directing banks, controlling companies and branches of foreign institutions (hereinafter collectively referred to as ‘banks’) to complete and submit specified financial, risk-based and other related returns to the PA in accordance with the requirements specified in Directive 1 of 2025, with effect from 1 February 2025.

This Directive directs banks to complete and submit specified financial, risk-based and other related returns to the PA in accordance with the requirements specified in this Directive, with effect from 1 July 2025.
